During the 1977-78 school year Lake Park High School continued to offer its students quality educational opportunities suited to their needs, interests, and abilities. Although this was due in part to the dedication of the school's faculty and staff, much credit also must go to both the community-at-large and the parents for their continued commitment to quality education and their willingness to provide the necessary resources for carrying the concept through to fruition. All of us - teachers, staff, and administration thank you for enabling us to meet our responsibilities to the student body.

To the seniors who are completing their high school careers, congratulations for a job well done and the best of luck and God speed as you approach future endeavors. With your leaving goes a little of us, and I feel confident that Lake Park High School is a better place for having known you. May this year's LANCE give you many pleasant memories and on occasion cause you to reflect upon your days as a student at Lake Park.

To the many students who will return next year, the new year can represent either a continuation of a highly successful school career or a new beginning - an opportunity to demonstrate to yourself and to others that through commitment and application you will make the most out of the educational opportunities available.

We look forward to your return and pledge our efforts toward making the next school year the very finest one of all.

Sincerely yours,

G. Allan Gogo

PEOPLE PLAY

We go along day by day facing new people and situations. Time and again there are purposes behind all our actions. It's all a game, whether to make people happy or sad, being constructive, destructive, lonely or gregarious. It all has some meaning.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT IS ALIVE . . . AND WELL

This year Student Council, sponsored by Mr. Harris and Ms. Crisanti, was able to accomplish more than any year before. Under the leadership of Jon Thomas, Student Council sponsored many successful events, including homecoming, a Cubs basketball game, a Christmas party for the children of the Mark Lund Home, and obtaining juke boxes for both campuses. Throughout the year, the councils discussed such topics as commons, class rank, attendance, and spirit. Once again, there were councils at both campuses, having bi-monthly meetings separately and the councils meet together once every six weeks.

DEADLINE TIME MEANS OVERTIME . . .

Kirk Pagenkopf is defenseless without his camera

The Yearbook Staff found itself with more pages to work with this year and still had problems trying to get everything included in the book that we wanted. Just as the January "blahs" hit, we received a citation for excellence from the Eastern Illinois High School Press Association which stirred us again. Despite all of our complaining, however, putting together a book is a challenge — and not bad fun!

Senior Dan Colella keeps checking to see that "everything is in alphabetical order" — a yearbook staff motto frequently heard.

Junior Nancy Green looks at the yearbook wondering how she got into all of this.

The 103-member Lancer Marching Band finished their fall competition by winning the Grand Championship of the Northern Illinois Marching Band contest and capturing first place in the "AA" large school category. During the summer they finished a solid 8th at the national competition at Whitewater, Wisconsin, and also performed during the half-time at a Chicago Bears pre-season game. In October the band won both the parade and concert honors at the Maquoketa, Iowa marching band festival. ORCHESTRA SOOTHES OUR NERVES

Although relatively small in numbers, the LP students who compose the school orchestra provide many pleasant moments for those who take the time to listen. The countless hours of practice lead to concerts in the spring as well as that elusive self-satisfaction for the members themselves. Pictured here are scenes from the orchestra's mini-concert in the Resource Center at East Campus just before the Christmas vacation.

The Speech Team did well in the twelve tournaments in which they participated this year. Junior Melanie Ross was a dominating figure in this years competition, receiving three first-place trophies during the season. Lynn Gorski received a second place award in Oratory in the IHSA District competition qualifying her for the Sectional Tournament. As a team they finished in the top ten at most of their tournaments.

This year the Perspective was led by two co-editors, sophomore Alan Maass and junior Mark Petersen. MATHLETES ENTER THE SCENE

The first year that LP participated in the North Suburban Math League was a year for learning. By and large the freshmen and sophomore participated with greater enthusiasm than their upper-division counterparts. Our freshman team won the Logic Tournament, led by Karen Muschen who had a perfect score. Dean Gronemeier and Karl Jensen also had perfect scores. Bob Rasmussen consistently did well in either the oral competition or on the senior level competition. The Mathletes are coached by math teachers Mr. Cieply and Ms. Semro.

Bob Rasmussen hopes that his "thinking cap" will come through for him as Karl Jensen works through some of the problems.

This has been the best year for the Cheerleading Squad Honors began at summer camp and haven't stopped since. At camp, each squad competes with two cheers for three consecutive nights. They may also bring special routines to try and qualify for nationals. The top five squads and the top five individuals qualify for nationals along with any worth special routines.

The Lancer squad received top honors for squad routines by receiving six first place awards. Dorie Heninger, Donna Wincek, and Robin Tyburski were given top honors which qualified them for nationals and both routines qualified

Nationals were held at Lansing, Michigan where the squad placed third in the nation in cheers, first in pom-pom routines, first in skits, and first in spirit sign. Overall squad points made them the top squad in the nation. Individual honors went to Dorie Heninger with a thirtieth place and to Donna Wincek with an eleventh

— Perla
Mazurski

Perla Mazurski started amateur skating ten years ago and belongs to two area skating clubs. She has competed in sixteen events in Canada, Wisconsin, St. Louis, Milwaukee and throughout Illinois. She plans to begin duet skating this summer. Pictured is Perla as she appeared in a production of "Cinderella."

"Dancing is tough,

VICKI
PELUCHIWSKI is one of the few people lucky enough to have danced with Rudolph Nureyev. Vicki began dancing ballet and jazz seven years ago at age ten. She enrolled in dance classes to improve her poise and coordination. Vicki practices for four hours almost everyday. Vicki plans in the future to go on to school and continue dancing perhaps attending a New York institution. Her goal: "dreams of dancing for the American Ballet Company."

"Dedication and endurance are the keys . . ."

— Mark Gorski

MARK GORSKI started bike racing four years ago through bicycle touring. Mark trains forty to sixty miles a day, six days a week from March through September. In the past year Mark has raced in a hundred races, and won over twenty. He has raced in such diverse places as Washington D.C., Seattle, Cincinnati, Germany and Belgium. Mark was named State Track and Road Champion for 1977 in Illinois. His future goals are to ride on the Junior World team in Europe, to be an Olympic Gold Medalist and eventually a professional bike racer.

Inherent in all the games we play — in and out of school — are two factors: relating to others and the fact that there will be some winners and, ultimately, some losers

Life is like a serious game of cards in that we are all dealt various hands to play. Have you ever been impressed how successful some people can be with what might be a lousy hand? If so, you've probably also seen some great hands be totally wasted by a person who could have cleaned up if only he had played more skillfully the cards he had been dealt

This expertness at something as common as playing cards seems to be a quality that is useful for the greater game of life

This past year was both a busy and eventful one. These times, good and bad, make up the memories of high school that we will carry with us forever. In creating the Lance, we hope to have captured the highlights of this year. To the Seniors, this book represents the end of high school — its parties, classes, football games, and cold winter bus rides. It's time to look towards the future and not dwell in the past. To them we say "Good Luck!"

This Lance would have never been created without the help of many people. In particular, we'd like to thank Cindy Tichy, editor of the 1975 Lance, who got us started. Also a special thanks to Mr. Dwain Thomas and Mr. Andrew Fowler whose guidance through the years has been greatly appreciated. To our staff, who at times wondered if we were playing with a full deck, especially Nancy Greening and Mar Ryan, upcoming editors, we thank them and wish them the best of luck to come.

In closing, we hope everyone enjoys the Lance as much as we have enjoyed putting it together.

Editors, Jan Ryan
